

LearnWell is currently looking for a motivating and creative full-time teacher to tutor students who are currently out of school in the Waukegan area!

In this position, you will be working in a small group of students to help them stay on track with their academics while they are unable to attend their traditional schools.

Teacher should:

- Hold a teaching certification
- Hold a LBS1 certification
- Have a passion for working with children and adolescents
- Be comfortable supporting students in their assignments across all subject areas

In this full-time position, you will learn new skills inside and outside of the classroom while working with students. You will be part of a great team that helps students transition smoothly back to school.

- This position follows a traditional school year calendar
- Hours are flexible Monday-Friday between 8am-430pm
- Position pays $25 an hour with additional health benefits, 401k plan, and life insurance
- Potential for growth and full-time opportunities

If interested, please email: dwright@learnwelleducation.com

And check us out at www.learnwelleducation.com

