

Job Description*: Machine Operator

PURPOSE OF THE JOB:

Position is responsible for the operation of assembly equipment and the packaging of molded and/or assembled components per company and customer specifications

KEY ACCOUNTABILITIES:

- Operate, assemble or package equipment as required per product specifications
- Perform in-process visual inspection to identify gross defects
- Report identified visual defects to Supervisor or Process Technician
- Package & label product per customer specification
- Enter daily production and scrap data into Mattec
- Complete production and workstation documentation as required
- Provide suggestions/take active role in Process Improvements
- Complete assembly and auxiliary equipment TPM - Total Productive Maintenance activities
- Ensure materials are properly staged
- Perform scale set-up and operation of scales
- Complete cycle checklist
- Other duties as assigned

KNOWLEDGE/SKILLS/EXPERIENCE:

- High School Diploma, GED
- One year manufacturing/warehouse experience
- Basic math skills
- PC Skills

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Works in clean room manufacturing environment with moderate noise levels
- Standing, Walking, Reaching, Bending, Stooping up to 11 hours per shift
- Must be able to lift up to 35 lbs.

Interested in the position?

Apply through the Careers section at Nemera.net or send resume to leah.rogers@nemera.net

*This document is a sample of job description activities only and is not the complete job description for the position