Press Brake Operator

Laser Precision, LLC is currently seeking a Press Brake Operator.

Job Type: Full-time

Job Overview: As a Press Brake Operator, you would be responsible for the following:

- Set up tools and dies on advanced press brake machinery to ensure timely completion of customer jobs.
- Processing and measuring metal components to customer specifications.
- 2nd shift positions are available: Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday-Thursday-Friday 2nd shift 3:30pm-12:00am
- You will receive an industry competitive wage and benefit package including; vacation, holiday/sick time, health/dental/vision insurance, bonuses, and a 401K plan.

Required Qualifications:

- High School Diploma and/or GED equivalent. Additional schooling a plus.
- Mechanically inclined, excellent spatial reasoning skills.
- Some experience working on a computer.
- Eager to bring your skillset into an advanced manufacturing facility.
- Must be a detail oriented person willing and able to contribute to a team effort.
- Begin and finish each day with a zero-defect mentality and commitment to producing a quality, American made product.

Physical Requirements and Duties:

- Ability to reach, turn, twist, and walk.
- Ability to stand for the duration of a work shift.
- Ability to lift 35 lbs. at a time.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Forklift experience a plus.
- GD&T and/or Blueprint reading.
- 3-6 months working in a warehouse environment.

For consideration, please send a resume to Kimberly.Wimer@laserprecision.com

Laser Precision, LLC is an equal opportunity employer.